

*Infantile hemangioma/
congenital cutaneous
myofibroma.* 4

*BCG-induced lichen
scrofulosorum.* 6

*Alagille syndrome:
from the cutaneous to
the systemic.* 11

*Juvenile xanthogranu-
loma mimicking mollu-
scum contagiosum.* 16

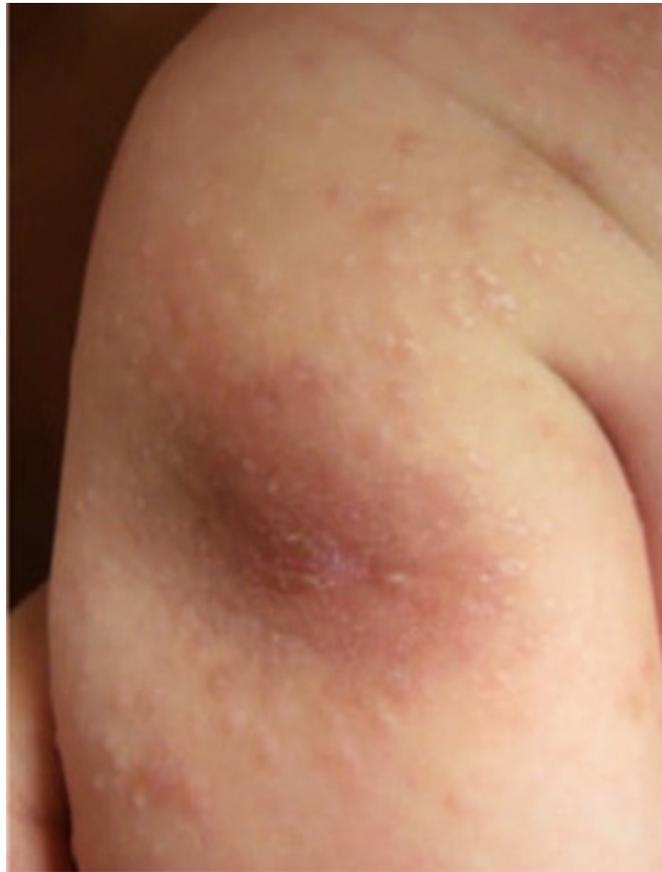

*Ultrasound appearance
of sucking knuckle pad.
An update.* 20

Congenital cutaneous tumors of the newborn. 23

Confetti-like hypomelanosis in tuberous sclerosis complex. 52

*Epidermolytic palmoplantar keratoderma
with tachycardia and
digital clubbing.* 53

Nevus anemicus: a difficult diagnosis. 54

*Venous malformation
becoming evident with exertion.* 55

*Segmental congenital smooth muscle hamar-
toma.* 56

*Infantile hemangioma
responsive to low dose
propranolol.* 57

*Autosomal dominant familiar chronic mucocu-
taneous candidiasis.* 58

Prepubertal acne inver-sa of the inguinal region. 59

*Guttate psoriasis post-
hand, foot and mouth
disease.* 60

Hypotrichotic nevus in a child with family autoimmune history. 61

*Acquired cutaneous Langerhans cell hi-
stiocytosis.* 62

*Jessner's lymphocytic
infiltration.* 63

Darier's disease. 64